The DIMMER VIEW

The Misfortune of Money

Misfortune breeds misfortune, it might be said.

That aphorism is being proven in the east county where the unfortunate center of this subject is the 18-year old Kip Hayes who was paralyzed from the neck down in a high school football injury on the night of November 12.

Hayes was then 17 and a popular Mt. Miguel High school student and an outstanding football player when his career came to an end on the football field in a game against Granite Hills High.

Fellow students kept a nearly-all-night vigil at El Cajon Valley Hospital. Later he was moved to Grossmont where he is is now. But during the vigil his schoolmates decided to begin a campaign for funds to aid the injured player. The money was turned over to Frank Shughrue, whose son was Kip's team-mate.

Shughrue is a former manager and vice president of the Lemon Grove California 1st National Bank and is now a vice president of the bank's chain. Local bank managers are continually called upon to care for funds collected by clubs groups and organizations — and this was no exception. The funds were handed to Shughrue to hold and disperse for Kip's hospitalization, education and vocational training. The fund anticipated that the insurance would run out eventually.

Dr. Robert Pyle, Kip's high school principal and Mrs. Betty Schroeder, mother of Kip's best friend, were chosen to help handle the funds. Mrs. Schroeder is the nursing education director at El Cajon Valley Hospital.

At the time the three thought the fund might grow to as much as $6,000 which would soon be used up on the early needs of the youth. Fortunately it touched $79,000 and the group approved the expenditure of approximately $11,000 which went for monthly respirator charges, a device without which Kip could not live; a special lift for the paralyzed lad, a stereo set for Kip's room, insurance premiums, a page turner and an electric powered wheelchair which can be operated by the mouth alone. It cost $7,500.

When the Combat Pilots Assn. raised $22,000 from a 4-day air show for Kip, and the funds then totaled $68,000, the committee of 3 decided the size of the fund demanded legal trusteeship.

Jim Dorman, a Lemon Grove attorney and now mayor of the City of Lemon Grove, prepared the trust on March 18 with the original 3 as trustees.

Kip's mother, Ruth M. Hayes, presently unmarried, voiced complaints that she was not included in the use and distribution of the funds. She complained that she was without sufficient funds to supply Kip with some of the things he wanted.

She had previously entered suit against the makers of the helmet Kip was wearing on the night of the injury claiming that the helmet was "defective and unsafe."

As her complaints grew, and some of them were made through the press, the trustees resigned. Shughrue said the innuendos of Mrs. Hayes' statements seemed to impugn the character of the trustees who were devoting their expertise in handling the funds entrusted to them while they worked long, extra hours without getting nor expecting reward other than seeing the injured youth get the best treatment and care possible.

Dorman said that after Mrs. Hayes had filed suit against the helmet firm, a number of contributors had asked if their contributions were being used for legal expenses for Mrs. Hayes' suit rather than for direct help for Kip.

Dorman also said that a lawyer representing Mrs. Hayes had questioned Shughrue regarding the purpose of the fund. "He appeared to be acting for her and wanted some of the funds for her own benefit. He inferred that there might be litigation if she was not provided with some of the money," he said.

Dorman said there were suspicions that she wanted money for lawyers' fees after she filed the helmet suit.

According to Shughrue, the trusteeship drawn up by Dorman provided that "all funds would be used for medical treatment, hospitalization, rehabilitation, vocational training and education for Kip Hayes" and "no monies . . . shall be paid to or for the benefit of the parents, guardian, conservator or the estate of Kip Hayes."

As a participant in several of the fund-raisers, it was this writer's understanding that the funds would be used as eventually spelled out in the trust and there is no evidence that money was used otherwise.

Mrs. Hayes also complained that Kip is now 18 and should have a say in the use of the money regardless of the intent of the donors.

Both she and her son complained recently about the food at Grossmont Hospital. She said Kip wanted a better variety. She said she wanted to prepare some chili for her son but didn't have the money for the ingredients. The trustees said that any additional food would have been supplied providing it was approved by his attending physician.

$68,000 will buy a lot of chili. As tasty as chili is, her complaint will probably give grave concern to those who are now contributors to the Kip Hayes Fund.

Whether she can tap the fund for other uses may now become a court matter. A petition is being filed in Superior Court to name successor trustees. These probably will be responsible to the court.

Mrs. Hayes' latest complaint that neither she nor Kip have any voice in the management of the funds seems to infer a lack of fidelity and integrity for the trustees. This trio's reputation over the years would dispute that thesis.

But the complaints are certain to have a drying-up effect on the enthusiasm of the donors.

The one person who will suffer the most because of it is the most unfortunate one of all — Kip Hayes.

Also Lynn Shubert, Jim Van Cleave, Rosarie Graham and Stephen Games.

Residents are invited to participate. Reservations can be made through the S.V. CoC office — 466-5736. Ox Bow is at 9816 Campo rd., Casa de Oro.

Seniors Getting Benefits From Property Rent Law

$19.6 million in payments to 90,635 older Californians, the first to receive 1977-78 benefits under the Senior Citizens Property Tax Assistance Law and the new Senior Citizens Rent Assistance Law, have been mailed by the State Controller's office.

The payments for 76,585 property tax assistance claimants totaled almost $18.6 million. Over $1 million was paid to 14,050 who claimed rent assistance.

State Controller Kenneth Cory said over half a million older California homeowners and renters will share an estimated $98 million in Senior Citizen assistance payments during the 1977-78 fiscal year.

"We expect claims from more than 300,000 homeowners who are 62 years old or older, and perhaps another 200,000 claims from renters in the same age group," Cory said, "but we know many of those who are eligible fail to file simply because they overlook or don't know about the program."

Cory said the Senior Citizens Property Tax Assistance law now permits claimants to have total household income up to $12,000 as compared to $10,000 last year, and receive assistance on property taxes paid on the first $8,500 of assessed value are compared to $7,500 last year.

More Qualify

"This should result in more people qualifying for this assistance and the payments being higher," said Cory. Last year 293,000 qualified and the average payment was $176.

Senior Citizens Rent Assistance is being offered for the first time and it can only be guessed that there will be 200,000 applicants, Cory said.

CITY HALL EXECUTIVES — Tom Parks, awaiting county approval for the title of acting city manager, looks over papers being prepared by Maggie Reilley, acting city clerk and treasurer. Parks, on loan from the county will learn next week if he will be in conflict of interests if he serves both city and county. Reilley, long-time city clerk of the City of La Mesa, is now retired but agreed to serve until a permanent replacement could be acquired.
City Hall is suite "C", 3568 Main st. and is open 5 days a week. The phone — 464-6934.

Meet With Your Councilmen

Wednesday Afternoons For Public to Visit

The Lemon Grove City Council, in its first "strictly business" meeting Monday, breezed through an agenda of items which were mostly urgency measures.

The meeting was at the Lemon Grove Education Center at Kempf and Lincoln streets where the group will meet weekly on Mondays at 7:30 p.m. until the town's business requires that meetings be held only bi-weekly.

One of the matters agreed upon was that "Meet with your councilman Day" would be Wednesday afternoon at City Hall, 3568 Main st., suite "C". Appointments may be made by calling 464-6934.

The council approved an offer of Crocker National Bank for a line of credit of $100,000 which should carry the city until sales tax income is received. The bank offered to extend the prime rate to the borrowers on 55% of the loan.

In other business the council established the mayor and treasurer as signatories for city warrants

Approved a tentative budget and authorized certain expenditures.

Named itself, temporarily, as the L.G. Planning Agency

Set their own salaries at $150 a month in accordance with the government code.

. . . and heard reports on various subjects from Don McLean, city attorney and Tom Parks, liaison officer between city and county.

Recruitment Continues

Parks said recruitment effort for a city manager and city clerk continues and that he will hire an unnamed steno-clerk this week at $700 a month.

He also noted that a wide range of talents is among the 21,000 residents of the new city. Many of these had offered their services. The council will have volunteer forms at future meetings so that a list may be compiled of those who want to serve their new city.

The July First Committee has $600 after paying its bills according to Karen Thomson. The committee devised programs, sold advertising and arranged for the inauguration ceremonies July 1st. The use of the funds will be decided upon later.

A plan to tape council meetings was approved. It will require a library at City Hall and duplicates of the tapes together with a tape player for citizens who wish to refer to certain proceedings.

Supervisors Meet at Monte Vista

Valle de Oro Plan Sent Back To Planners for More Changes

At least one part of the Valle de Oro Community Plan is going back to county planners for further changes.

The County Board of Supervisors, meeting in the area for the 1st time Monday night in Monte Vista High School Auditorium to review the plan, found 13 separate requests to change the designation of a strip of Grand avenue from Jamacha blvd. to Jamacha road.

The area, currently lined with businesses, was zoned by county planners for high density residential.

Several times during the discussion, an irate Board of Supervisors Chairman James Bates threatened to adjourn the meeting to stop applause for opposition speakers.

"I am very seriously considering adjourning this meeting if these outbursts don't stop," said Bates. "I am not going to tolerate the clapping after every speaker."

Earlier Bates had mentioned the same thing had happened when the Alpine Plan was reviewed and the meeting had finally ended at midnight.

One business owner, speaking out for the commercial designation he wanted for Grand ave., told the supervisors, "You zoned this area for business 17 years ago. Now you tell us it is set for high density residential. If the Board of Supervisor's word was not good 17 years ago, how can it be good tonight."

Many of the 13 speakers against the Grand ave. designation said they had not been polled and knew nothing about the proposed zoning changes.

The Supervisors voted unanimously to refer the Grand ave. issue back to planners.

Mike Wright, chief county planner, said the county's idea was to get around "strip commercial areas like those along El Cajon blvd," and added the issue would be decided in the CEC the 1st Wednesday in August.

Other Issues

A motion by Supervisor Roger Hedgecock to dump the restaurant on top of Dictionary Hill failed with Supervisors Hamilton, Moore, and Taylor voting nay.

Hedgecock contended houses would be built up to the planned 2.5 acre park and restaurant causing the area to look congested.

Other changes requested by the citizens were:

—La Mar st. change from low medium residential to medium high residential,

—Austin drive changed from intensive agriculture to medium low residential,

—Helix street changed from medium high residential to low medium residential,

—and a request to retain the regional park designation for the land around Sweetwater Reservoir.

Planner Mike Wright said the Board of Supervisors is planning to take final action on all community plans August 25.

Otay to Force 10% Cut in Water Use

Climbing labor costs, maintenance and replacement costs, and the high cost of capital improvements were the reasons cited by Otay Watter District Board president Ralph W. Chapman for seting a penalty surcharge for Spring Valley businesses and farmers who don't cut their water consumption by 10 per cent.

The board mandated to all commercial users of Otay water, they must cut consumption by 10 per cent or face penalties of 15 to 23 cents for each unit of water used.

Included with the commercial users were public buildings such as schools and federal, state, and local buildings. These buildings will be charged 15 cents more for water they use beyond the 90 per cent limit.

Agricultural customers will be charged 23 cents more for what they use over the limit.

The water board is expected to consider an ascending rate scale for domestic (home) users.

Jim Ellis Speaker At Crime Crusade

Assemblyman Jim Ellis will be the guest speaker at the regular luncheon meeting of Stamp Out Crime Crusade to be held at the Imperial House Restaurant, 6th and Kalmia Monday noon. Assemblyman Ellis will discuss legislation pertaining to crime and crime prevention.

The public is invited but a reservation is suggested. Call 460-3428.

A member from our community will be recognized for his performance as a concerned citizen.

A local law-enforcement officer will be presented with a letter of appreciation and gratitude for his performance of duty.

What is a City?

Powers and Limitations

CIVIL LIBERTIES — The state and federal constitutions guarantee certain civil liberties and civil rights, such as the right of peaceful protest, assembly, worship, speech, etc.

Municipal regulations which unreasonably impinge on the lawful exercise of these rights, whether by prior restraint, prohibition, arbitrary regulation or arrest, are invalid.

A permit system designed to afford a reasonable notice and assure adequate control and freedom from unnecessary risks may be appropriate.

REASONABLENESS — Implicit in every constitutional statutory and judicial authorization is the recognition that every action of municipal government based thereon must be reasonable both from the standpoint of accomplishing a municipal purpose and from the counterpoint of preventing unnecessary restriction.

In other words, no municipal action can be arbitrary or excessive in scope. While obviously the primary responsibility for the determination of reasonableness lies with the local body, the courts do have jurisdiction to enjoin confiscatory, abusive or capricious action.

PROCEDURAL REQUISITES — The legislature has determined that many activities that local government might otherwise undertake may be pursued only according to strict procedural steps. For example, zoning requires prescribed hearings, assessment districts, procedural complexities; major public works construction, a bid procedure; and significant public or private works over which the city has discretion must be preceded by an environmental impact study. Failure to follow such rules will usually invalidate the action taken.

REDELEGATION — A delegated duty may not be redelegated, and the city council having delegated the power to perform legislative functions, may not in turn redelegate that authority to a different agency without the consent of the electors of the legislature, or without reserving the right of final appelate review thereon.

Unless specifically restricted, a delegation of administrative functions with appropriate standards is proper.

There's An Answer

By Dr. and Mrs. Vincent Peale

True Blue

Q. My problem is very hard. I feel I'm in love with this wonderful guy.

He's 24 years old. We've never had a chance to date so I'm not sure how he feels about me.

Lately he went to California, and I've been depressed and worried he'll fall in love with someone else before he and I can get a chance to find out how we feel about each other.

Another guy I know (we're good friends) told my cousin he wants to take me out. What should I do

A. The fact that the young man in question has moved to California and that you will not have the opportunity to be with him may mean that he is not the one for you.

Since another good friend desires to take you out, it would seem the better part of wisdom to go out with him and others.

Sex Life

Q. I'm 35, male, divorced four years. I don't have any extra money to date, don't know anyone I would like to date. I'm stuck on this question. I don't want to remarry, but I desire sex. But to have sex outside of marriage is sin. What is a person to do? Go through the rest of his life without any sexual conduct?

A. The sex urge is normal and was built into you by your Creator.

The Christian moral code is based on the fact that it has been proven better that a man should have one wife and adhere to her only in sex relationships.

If you desire to live without sin, which in our opinion is the right and proper way of conduct, then you should reconsider your disinclination to marry.

Find yourself a good wife and live a normal married life. The mere fact that your first marriage may have been an unhappy one does not mean that your next marriage may not be entirely different.

Jealousy

Q. I've met a man who wants me to marry him. I love him very much. I've been divorced and he has too.

This man comes to my house, says he wants to marry me, but teases my 15-year-old daughter instead of me.

I want to know for sure if he loves me, but he never tells me he does. Can you tell me how to know that he really loves me, or is he just pretending?

A. For some reason, certain men cannot articulate love. But there are ways of measuring this man's feeling: his desire to be with you, his respect for you, the consideration with which he treats you, the fact that he told you he wants to marry you.

Even the teasing of your daughter, aged 15, may mean that he would be a loving father to her.

Don't make the mistake of being jealous of your young daughtetr and thereby misjudge this man. Just be normal and happy about it all and you will know what is the best thing to do.

UC Researcher Finds Laetrile a Poison

New data collected by a University of California researcher shows laetrile may be as harmful as cancer when mixed with common fruits and vegetables.

Research done by Dr. Jerry P. Lewis, head of cancer studies at the University of California at Davis, has turned up data which shows five tablets of the controversial cancer drug can kill human beings.

"Laetrile contains six percent cyanide, which usually is in a harmless form until it combines with a certain chemical," said Lewis. "This chemical, called betaglucosidase, is found in such foods as bean sprouts, apples and almonds. When laetrile is consumed with these foods, the cyanide is released as a poison."

Dr. Lewis said laetrile killed six of ten laboratory dogs when the normal dose was given with almonds.

The dosage recommended for humans by laetrile advocates is from one to five tablets daily. According to Lewis, five laetrile pills contain the lethal dose of 300 milligrams of cyanide.

Fire Board Meetings

The board of directors of the Lemon Grove Fire Protection District noted at the July 5 meeting that meetings would continued to be held on alternate Mondays through October 24 except for one on Tuesday, October 11 which would replace the Monday, October 10 meeting. —

Lipizzans Featured At Golden Hall Sun.

The Royal Lipizzan Stallions, together with such breeds as Andalusians and Appaloosas, will perform in the Convention and Performing Arts Center's Golden Hall Sunday at 3 and 8 p.m.

The graceful white Lipizzaners will execute a full and authentic program of their famed classical movements and great leaps known as "Airs Above the Ground."

In the Courbette, the horse does a series of jumps repeated from two to six times on the hindlegs while in the Capriole, the Lipizzaner jumps off the ground and kicks out at the moments his body is horizontal to the ground.

Originally the "Airs Above the Ground" were tactics of war, used by mounted men to inspire terror in enemy infantrymen. The Lipizzaners, because of their exceptional strength and intelligence, were especially bred for this purpose.

Those in this year's show are from the breed's six bloodlines: Conversano, Neopolitano, Pluto, Siglavy, Maestoso and Favory. The Lipizzaner is the result of centuries of crossbreeding of Spanish and Arabic-Oriental bloodlines.

Featured artist Charles Skelton will ride his magnificent Andalusians, demonstrating both his ability to control his horses without the benefit of reins and the exceptional versatility of the breed which traces back some 8,000 years.

The Andalusians were favorite horses of the Romans around 1000 B.C. as both saddle mounts and chariot steeds.

Local Firm Beats Emission Standards

Dutch Cleaners in Lemon Grove, has just installed the only solvent emmissions standards equipment approved by the United States Environmental Protection Agency, according to Tom Stein, owner.

The firm is the first in the U. S. to have this new equipment.

EPA has proposed regulations for solvent emmissions in dry cleaning plants to be at least five pounds of solvent per one-hundred pounds of clothing cleaned. These standards are more rigid than the National Standard which is from 15-18 lbs. of solvent per one-hundred.

The solvent used by most dry cleaners is Perclorethelene or "Perk" as it is known in the industry, because it is nonflammable, it dries fast, is odorless, and safe as well as being an excellent cleaning agent. This type of solvent and installation of the new equipment means Dutch Cleaners will not only triple its efficiency but make his work room a healthier place for his employees.

School Taxing and Assessor's Greed

Dear Editor:

The past years have shown the hypocrisy prevalent in our property tax appraisal, assessment, collection and budgeting. Out of a clear sky we have the arbitrary and huge increases in assessed valuation by the Assessor — from 25% to over 40%, when the actual increase in the cost of living for the period was never over 11% to 14%. These were never secret — the press gave them full coverage well in advance of the mailing of the tax bills.

Yet, when the 11 bureaus, departments, authorities and powers who set their own tax RATES, totally ignoring the fact that perhaps the assessed valuation in their area may have been raised 42%, they set the same old tax RATE and increase their "take" 42%.

Had there been any consideration for the taxpayer and inherent honesty in setting the new tax rate they would have reduce the rate commesurate with the increase in the valuation — but this is never done —they smugly reach out and grab every dollar in sight.

Instead, suppose the taxpayer sits down with the list of 11 bureaus who need his tax dollars to exist and HE decides how much the can afford to give each one of them. Now the shoe is on the other foot!

When the City of La Mesa, on a tax rate of $1.18 for the full year can and does furnish us with police and fire protection, ambulance, several city parks and picnic grounds, "50c city taxi service", stray animal control and a proportionate share of maintenance costs of San Diego bus service, we should realize that every tax dollar has given us 100% of its possible value.

Then when we see that the tax rate for "high school" is $2.62 for a 9 month period and is just a small part of the total of $6.626, schools are allowed to set for themselves is it not about time that we took a long, hard look at this 'marriage' between assesed valuation and the power and privilege of deciding just how much they are going to bill the poor taxpayer, via the tax RATE avenue?

How truly was it spoken a century of more ago "The power to tax is the power to destroy."

There is still time — our tax bills will not come out until November but if we wait until then we will be like lambs led to slaughter and we will pay and pay and pay. SO —let's have some suggestions as to procedure — Yes?

Stress is Eyed In UCSD Class

The boss is demanding that report in 10 minutes; your secretary just announced she is sick and would you mind getting the phone; and you know in your heart that you'll never get to that unfinished business on your desk.

Stress. How do you handle it?

Karl Albrecht, president of Management Sciences, an S.D. consulting firm, says deep relaxation techniques and various thinking strategies are the answer.

He'll be explaining and demonstrating these methods in a new UC S.D. Extension course titled "Managing On-the-Job Stress" scheduled for 9 a.m.-4 p.m. Friday, July 22 at the La Jolla Village Inn, Interstate 5 at La Jolla Village drive. The $45 fee includes lunch.

Health and happiness can be enhanced with application of anti-stress techniques in one's personal as well as professional life, Albrecht says.

Regarding course enrollment, call UCSD Extension at 452-3400. Also request that Extension's Business, Management and Real Estate Seminars brochure be mailed free of charge.

Therefore thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things.

But we are sure that the judgment of God is according to truth against them which commit such things.

'Whingdingdilly' Show Dawns at S.V. Library

The finale to the summer reading program at the Spring Valley library will be the puppet show "Whingding dilly" July 21 at 3:30 p.m.

Scamp, an ordinary dog, becoming discontented with his life is transformed by Zildy , a crazy witch, into the Whingdingdilly, a creature with the feet of an elephant, the snout of a rhinoceros, and the antlers of a deer.

The show is based on the book by Bill Peet and children are invited to bring their parents.

The Spring Valley Library is located at 1043 Elkelton blvd. and is open Monday through Thursday 9:30 a.m. to 8:30 p.m., Friday 9:30 a.m. to 6 p.m., and Saturday 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. The phone number is 463-3006.

Volunteers Needed For Aid to Blind

The San Diego Service Center for the Blind is offering courses of instruction enabling the visually handicapped to lead fuller lives.

Classes are in home skills, mobility, orientation braille and counseling at no cost.

Services would reach a larger group except for a shortage of volunteers to drive the blind to the Center and help in the classes.

Volunteers are also needed to make friendly visits in homes or rest homes. Contact is Anne Hoffman at 583-1542 or at 5922 El Cajon blvd.

S.V. Student Cited

James Rower of Spring Valley was one of the 273 students named to the Dean's Honor List at California Lutheran College (Thousand Oaks).

The announcement was made by Dean Peter Ristiben, vice president for Academic Affairs.

Students qualify for the Dean's List by maintaing a 3.5 grade point average out of a possible 4.0 in their academic studies.

The current list was chosen from a student body numbering nearly 1,200.

Also, President Nadine Mazcko will report on the General Federation of Women's Clubs Convention which she attended recently in Seattle, Washington.

Plans for the coming club year will be discussed and the presidents of each club in Southern District no 26 will be introduced.

Starlight Opens Tonight With 'Cabaret' as 1st of 4

Starlight opens "Cabaret" the first show of its' 1977 summer season tonight in the Starlight Bowl located under the stars in Balboa Park. With a book by Joe Masteroff, music by John Kander and lyrics by Fred Ebb, "Cabaret" will feature Gina Brazelle as Sally Bowles, Kirby Ward as the Master of Ceremonies and Kevin Howard Barker as Clifford Bradshaw.

Others in the cast will include Priscilla Allen as Fraulein Schneider, Robert Austin as Herr Schultz, Ron Ray as Ernst Ludwig, Mary Ehara Pater as Fraulein Kost, Karen Linden as the Telephone Girl, David Schrage as the Waiter, and Lori Caliendo and Debbie Rothestein as the Two Ladies.

It is the first time Starlight has done "Cabaret" and will mark the 32nd continuous season of high quality, full scale musical stage productions.

"Cabaret" will be presented tonight through Sunday, and July 21, 22, 23, 24.

It will be followed by "The Desert Song", featuring Broadway star Ron Husmann on August 4, 5, 6, 7, and 11, 12, 13, 14.

The third show of the season will be Rodgers and Hammersteins' classic "The King and I" running on August 25, 26, 27, 28, and September 1, 2, 3, 4.

Closing the 1977 season will be a production of the full length ballet "Midsummer Night's Dream", by the California Ballet Company on September 9 and 10.

Elementary Attendance Is Dropping, Riles Reports

SACRAMENTO — Compounding the problem of California school finance, State Superintendent of Public Instruction Wilson Riles has reported enrollment in the public schools as declining.

The State Superintendent said about 8,337 students have dropped out of the state's public schools between the fall of 1975 and fall 1976.

The .2 decrease was a marked reversal of the trend up to 1974 when the state's schools were recording 1.4 per cent increases.

Yet the total enrollment for elementary and secondary schools, which includes adult education and education for the handicapped was set at 5,070,514 students.

Despite the decline, California still has more students than any other state.

Riles said the primary reason for the decline in enrollment was in the elementary schools. Elementary enrollments have been decreasing for the past few years but have been, at least up to this school year, offset by adult education program.

Between 1975 and 1976, elementary enrollments decreased statedwide by about 30,000.

The decreases show a 1.1 per cent rate for 1976-77 as compared to a .3 per cent rate for 1975.

Riles said the greatest losses were in the elementary grades.

Area Residents May Apply

Grossmont School Board Seeks Applicants for Empty Bd. Seat

The Grossmont Union High School District Board of Trustees will be accepting applications from area residents who wish to be appointed to the board seat vacated recently by Robert Andreen.

Applications must be turned in to the Grossmont Union High School District office, 1100 Murray drive, La Mesa, by noon Monday.

Applicants must be at least 18 years old, a resident of the district, a registered voter, and not disqualified by state law from holding public office.

Application forms are available by calling the District office at 465-3131, exts. 205 or 206.

The Grossmont School Board will have 30 days to review the applications before making a decision.

According to state election law, voters unhappy with the board's appointment may petition for a special election. This petition must be submitted within 30 days after the board's appointment and contain at least five percent of the registered voters in the district.

Such a special election would cost taxpayers an estimated $25,000.

2 S.V. Teachers Hired To Administrative Posts

The La Mesa-Spring Valley Board of Education has named two district teachers to higher administrative posts.

The Board of Education promoted Philip J. Liles, formerly a teacher of the educationally-handicapped/ learning-disabled students at Rancho Elementary School, to administrative assistant for year-round schools in the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District.

Farquhar "Jim" C. Lloyd, an English-social science teacher at La Presa Junior High School, was named acting Vice President for the Spring Valley Junior High School.

Both appointments were made by the Board at its July 5 meeting and are effective for the 1977-78 school year.

Summer Festival Opens at Genesis

The first annual Summer Children's Theatre Festival will open August 5 with the production of "Story String", a collection of fables and tales from around the world.

Sponsored by the Genesis Theatre, 4690 Palm ave., the presentation of "Story String" will be performed by a 15-member troop through August 28. All performances will be given at the Genesis Theatre.

The Mary Kauflin Puppets will appear for two performances on August 7 and 14. Kauflin provides children with puppetry and music.

"Festivolikingg", an original show by Bennett E. McClellan, will round out the Festival. The company of 11 performers present vignettes and songs.

Tickets are through the Genesis Theatre, 461-8255, between the hours of 10 and 4 p.m. weekdays. Prices are 75 cents for children 12 and under and $1.50 for adults. Also there are available Festival Passes for the programs. Prices are $2 for children and $3.50 for adults.

'Rainmaker' Due On Alpine Stage

"The Rainmaker", a 3-act romantic comedy by Richard Nash will be the first play of the season by the Alpine Players offered on three consecutive Friday and Saturday nights at 8 o'clock.

The production will be staged in the Alpine school auditorium.

The play is directed by Bill Gaylord and Phyllis Zuidema. It is produced by Tanya Seymour. In the cast are Bill Zuidema, Fred Kruse, Ron Selness, Mike Thorsnes, John Wallace, Paul Gonya and Carole Thorsnes.

Tickets are $3; less for seniors and children. Tickets may be reserved by calling 445-6266.

The story line is of a drought in the West and a family of 4 whose cattle are dying. The father,and 2 sons are concerned about the daughter becoming an old maid.

Out of nowhere comes a silver-tongued stranger who claims to be a rainmaker. He convinces the family that he can produce rain and the girl that she is beautiful. After a couple of shots at rainmaking, the rain does come and so does love between the rainmaker and the girl.

Hansell Elected to Girls State Post

Nicole Susan Hansell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard W. Hansell, 8470 Adams st., Lemon Grove, has been elected as county recorder of the mythical county of Stanford at California Girls State.

Hansell is a Girls State representative from Mount Miguel High in La Mesa and was elected to the position last week.

CALPIRG Claims Meat Packers Ripped Consumers

Southern California consumers who have purchased beef have been rippd off for more than $100 million in the past twelve years according to a major class action anti-trust lawsuit filed by CALPIRG, and consumers, Frank Hogya, Tony Sohr and Eleanor Nida, residents of Southern California.

The suit, filed June 28, charges that the defendant meat packers, located in Southern California, have engaged in unfair trade practices which have caused the price of beef to be artifically high.

CALPIRG has brought the suit on behalf of the approximately 12 million consumers who have been affected by the price fixing.

According to the CALPIRG suit, the defendant meat packern have held meetings at which they agreed to artificially inflate and fix the price of beef commodities that are then sold to area markets.

In addition, CALPIRG charges that the defendants have conspired to mislabel the quality of beef sold to the markets in order to further inflate the price for consumers.

The estimated result of such price fixing activities is that consumers have paid ten cents more for each pound of beef purchased. Each person consumes approximately 120 pounds of beef each year according to recent figures from the American Meat Institute.

Evidence on the unfair industry-wide practices has been gathered during a year long investigation by CALPIRG staff and attorneys, William J. Bauer and George Schultz. "We do not believe that all of the defendants have been involved in all of the price manipulations," said Claire Lipschultz, CALPIRG Co-Director, "rather each of them has been involved in some of the actions which had led to a concerted effort to raise prices.

"We anticipate that other unfair practices, including possible manipulation of the USDA market reports and the National Provisioner, might be revealed during the course of the lawsuit," she continued.

Ethics Class Seen As Social Panacea

San Diego State University's College of Extended Studies will beat the dead horse with a special offering on "man's quest for personal and corporate ethics".

According to the instructor of the summer lecture, Garry Shirts, the series will examine the protest movements and "new" activism of last decade, social issues, nature, and the "Green Revolution".

The lecture will be held in room 117 of the Business Administration Building, SDSU, on Monday. The school's phone number is 286-5147.

This Week's RECIPE

Cheddar Ring

Hard to believe it was eight years ago Wednesday Astronaut Neal Armstrong landed his space craft on the moon. But it happened on July 20, 1969.

In commemoration of that event, we offer Cheddar Ring because the lunar landing proved to us once and for all the moon is not made of green cheese.

CHEDDAR RING

1 (3 oz.) package lemon-flavored gelatin
1 cup boiling water
1 cup applesauce
1 cup sour cream
1 teaspoon seasoning blend
¾ cup cheddar cheese or process American cheese, cut into small chunks fruit such as melon balls, grapes, plums, cherries, berries, peaches.

In a small bowl, combine gelatin and boiling water. Stir until completely dissolved.

In blender combine applesauce, sour cream, and seasoning blend. Blend until smooth. Add cheese and blend until smooth and well mixed.

Quickly blend in lemon gelatin.

Pour into a five-cup ring mold. Chill until firm for about 4 hours.

Unmold onto serving plate. Fill center of ring with fruit. Garnish sides of plate with more fruit.

NOTE: To make the mold without a blender, whip dissolved gelatin with applesauce and sour cream until well blended.

Stir in seasoning blend and grated cheese.

Fruits can be fresh, frozen or canned. Partially thaw frozen fruits. Dip fresh and frozen peaches in lemon juice to prevent browning. Drain all fruits before placing in center of mold.

Coronado Playhouse Lists Season's Menu

by Max Goodwin

The Coronado Playhouse opens its 1977-78 season August 5 with "The Owl and the Pussycat" which is now in rehearsal.

At a press reception, theatre directors introduced a new managing director, William R. Bruce and his wife Trina, who will be costume designer.

Polly Puterbaugh is season producer; L. Newell Tarrant, consulting director and Judy Bradshaw Quiett, children's theatre producer; Martin V. Gray, technical assistant, and Marge Cesario, office manager.

Puterbaugh is a San Diego favorite. Theatre enthusiasts recall her outstanding performances as a member of Starlight and later Old Globe. More recently she has been associated with Mission Playhouse.

Trina Bruce has performed at Old Globe, Carter Center and Mission.

At the reception last week, much of the snack table was set up by Puterbaugh who is noted for her homemade delicacies.

Some of the items she made at home and which delighted guests included turkey pastrami, Far Eastern chutney (which is featured at Anthony's Wharfside Restaurant) liver pate, salmon loaf, crab dip and her salt-free bread.

She also provided a wheel of College Swiss Cheese which has the piquant flavor of the conventional type but is soft enough to spread. She orders it from a specific cheese producer in Wisconsin.

Director Bruce announced productions to follow "Owl & Pussycat".

A "high class' British comedy in its San Diego premiere "Secretary Bird" is the second production. Another premiere, "The Secret Affairs of Mildred Wild", written by Pulitzer prize-winning author Paul Zindel follows "Bird" and the Tennessee Williams contemporary classic "A Streetcar Named Desire" is next in line.

"No Sex Please, We're British" is listed as a farcical romp which has been playing in London for 7 years. The summer show will be "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum."

Coronado Playhouse is at 1775 Strandway, south of Hotel del. Contact is 435-4856.

Can of Balls For Patrons At Friars Game

The Friars are planning to have a ball next week when they return home to the Sports Arena to play the Golden Gaters.

The first 1500 persons attending next Wednesday night's match will receive a can of Penn tennis balls.

The Friars, currently in the midst of a five-match road trip, consider the Gaters their chief opposition in the team's drive for a prominent spot in the playoffs.

"We're not conceding first place to Phoenix but right now we have our sights set on overhauling Golden Gate for second," said player-coach Cliff Drysdale.

After losing their first two starts to the Gaters, one a disheartening 24-26 overtime setback, the Friars delivered a 30-11 knockout the last time the rivals met.

Golden Gate has the league's premier men's doubles team in Tom Okker and Frew McMillan and an outstanding mixed doubles pair in McMillan and Francoise Durr. Former Friar Terry Holladay figures to draw the women's singles assignment against Kerry Reid who has won five of her last six matches in the Sports Arena.

Excellent seats from $3.50 are available and may be purchased at the Sports Arena box office. Parking is free.

Study Skills Workshops Scheduled at UC SD Ext

Enrollment is still open in The Summer 1977 Institute for Study Skills, which includes three workshops for new and returning college students.

Sponsored by UC San Diego Extension, the institute workshops are "Math Review for College (Including Preparing for the Math Sections of the SAT and GRE)" beginning August 8; "Effective College Study Techniques" with three separate sections beginning August 8, 13, and 15; and "Preparing for the Verbal Sections of the SAT (Scholastic Aptitude Test) and GRE (Graduate Record Examination)" beginning August 21.

For schedules of class times, length, and enrollment, call UCSD Extension at 452-3400.

There is a fee for each workshop in the institute.

NAMESAKES — Meet two Johnny Summers. Johnny Summers of El Cajon, 10, is an outfielder for the Little League's Plant House team which was in second place when the season ended.

Big Johnny "Champ" Summers is utility outfielder for the Cincinnati Reds. The Reds are in second place. The similarity lessens at that point because Little Johnny batted .300 "about one hit every three times at bat", while Big Johnny is batting about .210. "It's tough to break into the lineup with an outfield like ours," Big John said.

Little Johnny celebrates his 11th birthday during the month. Big Johnny gave him an autographed ball for his birthday and asked for a print of the picture above to "hang in my den. You're the best namesake I ever met," he told the youngster.

Wynne's 7-0 String Broken By Texas Heavy Scrapper

Heavyweight boxer Fili Moalo of Tonga kept his perfect record intact Friday night at the S.D. Coliseum although he was dropped in the 4th round for a count of 8 by his opponent, "Dangerous" Dan Johnson of L.A. It was a close split-decision making it 10 losses and 26 victories for Johnson.

Moalo claims a record of 10-0; the first 9 being KO's and all of them coming in the early rounds. He had a weight advantage of 234-202 which made Johnson cautious throughout the 10-round main event.

Tonga is approximately 400 miles southwest of Samoa in the Pacific.

Chula Vista's popular heavyweight Dave Wynne's string of 7 without a defeat came to a halt Friday at the hands of Randy "Tex" Cobb of Abilene. Wynne, too, suffered a weight differential. Cobb, a brawling battler, weighed in at 236. Wynne tipped the scale at 202. Each jolted the other with hooks, uppercuts and crosses until the referee stopped it at 1:42 of the second round of a bout scheduled for 6 when it appeared Wynne could not defend himself. He was still standing at the finish.

Murphy Loses

Popular "Spud" Murphy saw his burgeoning career delayed when a classy lad from the ESD Youth Development Program — Carlos Ortis — won a split decision in four rounds. The action was so good that fans threw nearly $100 in the ring. It seems reasonable that a rematch between these two would follow.

In an action-filled, 4-round lightweight scrap Arturo Reyes won a unanimous decision over Tric Bonilla. Both fighters, who spent their energy swinging rather than dancing, are San Diegans.

It was one of the season's better cards.

Clowns Needed

The Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus Clown College will conduct open interviews and auditions Friday from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. at the Sports Arena stage entrance.

Bill Ballantine, dean of the tuition-free, one-of-a-kind Venice, Fla. professional institution, will personally accept applications for an estimated 50 openings for the next eight-week session this fall.

According to circus San Diego engagement director John Zamoiski, the "call" is open to anyone 1 years or older who aspires to a clown career.

TAKE FIVE

by John E. Wirges

They're coming from France, South Africa, Zambia, New Zealand, Scotland, Wales, Italy, Taiwan, Brazil, Peru and so many other brightly colored spots on the world map that one can't list them all, but the game goes not to the longest traveler and Junior World championship trophies may crowd other awards of distinction on mantels no further away than Spring Valley, Oceanside, or Solana Beach.

They tee off on Tuesday in what probably is the largest and most certainly the most international golf tournament in the world.

"We will reach something like 660 players in our four divisions," with a foreign commitment double that of last year's record setting total," reported Norrie West, Junior World executive chairman. "As of right now, we have entries from 36 countries, territories and protectorates outside the United States. And that's not counting 40 players coming over from Hawaii.

It's almost phenominal," continued Norrie, who also oversees the professional counterpart to the Junior World Golf tourney as executive director of the Andy Williams-San Diego Open. "This thing is growing at a tremendous rate. We'll have 190 players in the 13-14 age division. There'll be nearly 70 girls in the 15-17 bracket. It doesn't look like it's going to be long before we'll have to have qualifying in all the divisions, instead of just the 15-17 age group as we do now."

Foreign and domestic hopefuls will be arriving over the weekend. Registration will be held Saturday, Sunday and Monday from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. at the new lounge behind the Wonderful World of Willie Wansa Pro Shop.

Youngsters 10-and-under face the test at Presidio Hills, the 11 and 12 crowd try Old Mr. Par at Mission Bay and the 13-14 gathering, all 190 of them, take a crack at Balboa Park. The three younger divisions play three rounds to a 54 hole total. No galleries are allowed for these swingers.

You can get out and watch the older kids tee up and whack the ball down the middle far enough to bring shame to your swing. The boys try out Torrey south for all four rounds of their shindig, while the girls play three rounds on Torrey north before the final test on Torrey South.

Jack Nicklaus II, Bobby Casper, and Kelvin Devlin are in the boys field and Tim Harney is following his dad's footsteps in the game with a first effort in the 13-14 division.

Just a few names to consider from outside the U.S. bring a wonderment of the popularity of the game. Frank Coutts is the Boy's Champion in the land of golf, coming from Aberdeen, Scotland. Mark Mouland is the British Boys Champ and represents Penarth, Wales.

Paolo Godinich is the 8th ranking amateur of his country, and you thought they didn't play the game in Zambia.

Marie de Lorenzi finished second last year in the senior girls battle. She burned up the practice links in France to lower her handicap from a five to a two. Alicia Maria Dibos left Peru a month ago to get used to American courses.

Any one of these talented youngsters could add the championship trophy to their homeward bound luggage, but the crown could stay within the friendly confines of San Diego.

LuLong Hartley just won the California State Junior Girls title and has to be considered among the favorites in the girls division.

Jeff Hart, who starred on the Torrey Pines High School team is a strong contender for the boys title. But a brother and sister team is in the running and could pull off a sweep.

Billy Barrett, 17, top gun at Monte Vista and representing Spring Valley and his 15-year old sister Sharon, who plays on Monte Vista's boys team, just captured both titles in the recent Marvin K. Brown tourney. They could do it again in the Junior World.

At the Coliseum

Bobby Chacon Tops Friday Ring Battle

Bobby Chacon, former featherweight champion, now a little heavier and fighting as a lightweight, will meet Alejandro Lopez, Baja California lightweight champion in a 10-round main event Friday at the Coliseum.

Chacon who knocked out the vaunted Little Red Lopez in 2 rounds a couple of years ago is now on a comeback trail under the guidance of trainer Eddie Futch.

In a 6-round middleweight scrap, Marc Saunders of Long Beach tangles with Lennie Vanessi of Samoa.

Featherweight Spud Murphy returns to the fray this week with Raphael Vargas of L.A. as his opponent. Murphy, of San Diego, carries a tremendous punch for a featherweight and is just starting his career and is 1-1. The fight is 4 rounds — just about right for a sincere, rough-house beginner.

Lightweight Arturo Reyes of National City will go 4 rounds with Turo Pineda of Mexicali. Reyes put on an outstanding demonstration of fisticuffs a few weeks back and the fans showered the ring with money for him.

Bert Lee, a famed middleweight of the great Mountain Empire Region comes down to the Coliseum to do 4 rounds with Curtis Lewis of L.A.

The Coliseum is at 15th and E streets in downtown San Diego. Reservations may be made at 233-4664.

Discounts are offered military, seniors and juniors. The first gong sounds at 8:15 p.m.

Padres Gain Respite Work 3 Days, Rest 4

A "Dodger sandwich" might be one way to describe the San Diego Padres somewhat limited action as the Padres find themselves with only a three game series in 7 days.

Following an open date tonight, the Padres will be taking on the National League Western Division leading Los Angeles Dodgers in a three-game series running Friday through Sunday. The two clubs will clash in 7 p.m. encounters Friday and Saturday and then wrap things up with a 1 p.m. contest on Sunday.

Then, the annual three-day break for the All-Star Game will follow setting up an isolated Dodgers series with an open date before the trio of games and three open dates right after.

Most of the Padres will enjoy three full days of rest as none of them were voted in by the fans as members of the starting lineup for the National League squad which will be meeting their American League counterpart at Yankee Stadium in New York City on Tuesday. However, the Padres are assured of at least one man on the club, but that decision rests squarely on the shoulders of Sparky Anderson who will be serving as manager of the National League Club.

The All-Star break for the Padres will come after 85 games, leaving the club with 77 contests following the mid-summer classic. "We're dedicating ourselves to turning things around in the second half," commented Padres President Buzzie Bavasi. "We have set our sights on playing at the .500 mark the rest of the way and making a concerted push to finish in the first division."

Leading Padre candidates to be chosen by Sparky Anderson for the All-Star Game are reported to be relief man Rollie Fingers and outfielder Dave Winfield. Last year Anderson tabbed pitcher Randy Jones and manager John McNamara for the elite crew.

At Old-Timers Game

Good Ol' Yesterdays Of Baseball Relived

Those who have seen Padres president Buzzie Bavasi doing what he appears to enjoy most will see it again as he hosts the San Diego Padres Old-Timers game on Saturday, July 23 at the Stadium.

Old-Timers will patrol the outfield, sparkle the infield and take hefty cuts at the ball as they play 3 innings, more or less, prior to the Padres vs. New York game which starts at 7 p.m.

Hits may be shorter, speed diminshed somewhat and the mid-air twist and throw unlikely, but a lifetime of baseball history will be there on the field while the more mature fans will discuss games and plays of the past as each "star" is presented.

Two of baseball's all-time veteran managers will be the skippers at the OT game.

The two are Walter Alston and Bill Rigney and they are slated to handle the managing chores as the Padres will use a Dodgers versus Giants theme for this season's contest. In fact, the theme really could be the 1951 Brooklyn Dodgers against their counterparts of that same season from the New York Giants as most of the players involved in the game will have been members of their respective clubs during that great campaign.

As all baseball fans know, 1951 was the season that the Dodgers blew a great 13½ game lead going into the closing stages of the season and then dropped a dramatic two-of three-game series to the Giants in a playoff for the pennant.

The big moment, of course, came in the ninth inning of the final playoff contest when Bobby Thomson crashed the "shot heard round the world" to lift the Giants to a 5-4 victory after trailing 4-1.

That home run by Thomson was adjudged by the fans in a nationwide poll as the Most Memorable Moment in the long history of the game.

Alston will enter the tussle as the senior of the two field managers with 23 years as skipper of the Dodgers both in Brooklyn and Los Angeles, behind him.

Stepping down from managing the Dodgers last September following the end of the 1976 campaign, Alston posted a great lifetime managing record of 2042-1615 with the Dodgers to rank fifth on the all-time victory list. With 23 years of service with just one club (1954-76), Alston ranks with legends Connie Mack and John McGraw for longevity with one organization. Mack spent 50 years with the old Philadelphia A's (1901-50) while McGraw led the New York Giants for 31 seasons (1902-32).

As for Rigney, he put together a major league managing career totaling 18 years with the old New York Giants (1956-57), San Francisco Giants (1958-59, 1976), Los Angeles Angels (1961-64), California Angels (1965-69) and the Minnesota Twins (1970-72). His lifetime marks stand at 1249-1321 with his biggest success coming in 1970 as he led the Minnesota Twins to the American League Western Division championship with a 98-64 mark.

A coach and advance scout for the Padres during the second half of the 1975 season, Rigney played eight years in the majors with the New York Giants (1946-53). He posted a batting average of .259 as he played all four infield positions, but he spent most of his time at second base.

New Millionaire In Hollypark Race

Thoroughbred racing's first millionaire will be honored at Hollywood Park Sunday with the inaugural running of the $75,000 Citation Handicap and set to head the field for the mile and —one-sixteenth feature is California's newest millionaire, Ancient Title.

Pictures of Citation and Ancient Title will be included on a full-color poster to be given away free as part of "Millionaires Day" at the Inglewood track. Also pictured on the poster are Hollypark-raced millionaires Round Table and Native Diver.

Getting the next-to-last weekend of the 1977 Hollywood Park thoroughbred meeting off to a rapid start Friday will be the $30,000 Hollywood Express Handicap, a five and one-half furlong dash for older horses.

Saturday, undefeated Sweet Littl Lady will seek her fifth consecutive victory in the estimated $150,000 Hollywood Lassie Stakes, Hollypark's traditional championship event for two-year-old fillies.

Seven-year-old Ancient Title will be seeking his 20th carer stakes win in the Citation and will be looking to bolster a lifetime bankroll that already totals $1,082,716.

Another highlight of Millionaires Day will be the weekly Sunday Sweep handicapping contest, which this week will provide a $20,000 bonus for anyone capable of selecting nine straight winners. If there is no sweep, $1,000 goes to the person or persons selecting the most consecutive winners, beginning with the first race.

L.G. Resident Cited By Insurance Group

Richard Chapman, 3025 Imperial ave., Lemon Grove, has been cited for outstanding achievements in insurance by the Farmers Insurance Group.

Chapman will be the guest of the Group's Topper Club at their convention in Newport Beach Sunday.

Honors are awarded annually to district managers and agents throughout the companies' territory who meet production standards.

State Makes Switch In Grid Schedule

S.D. State U. has switched its 1977 football home opener with Fullerton State to Saturday, September 10 at 7:30 p.m.

The game was originally scheduled for September 9, but was moved after the San Diego Chargers switched a preseason date with the Seattle Seahawks to September 11.

Starting times on two road games have also been changed. The second game of the season on September 17 against U. of Arizona in Tucson will start at 12:20 p.m. to accommodate the ABC-TV Regional Telecast.

Also the final game of the season on November 26 against San Jose State in Spartan Stadium has been shifted from a night game to a 1 p.m. contest.

2-Year Olders Run At Los Alamitos In Friday Feature

LOS ALAMITOS — Trials for the $75,000-added Kindergarten Stakes for 2-year-olds and the $50,000 Go Man Go Invitational for older sprinters will be on center stage at Los Alamitos this Friday and Saturday over the 400 yard strip.

In Friday evening's Kindergarten trials many of the country's best 2-year-olds, such as Lantys Easy Jet, Town Policy and Easy Della Jet, will be stretching out to 400 yards for the first time in a bid to qualify to the rich Kindergarten to be run Saturday, July 23.

Saturday's Go Man Go could turn into a showdown between 1976 Horse of the Year Dash For Cash, who just won the 440 yard Vessels Maturity, and reigning 350 yard champion Little Blue Sheep. The winner receives as a bonus an invitation to this winter's Champion of Champions, a $100,000 December race at Los Alamitos which three times has determined the World Champion in the last five years.

Jackie Robison Day

A tribute, Friday, to one of baseball's greatest players, Jackie Robinson, will help expand youth program for boys and girls of Southeast San Diego.

Events include a luncheon at the Hilton Inn and dedication of the San Diego Padres-Los Angeles Dodger game.

Former teammates of Jackie Robinson will be in attendance.

Tickets for the luncheon and baseball game are available by calling the Jackie Robinson YMCA at 264-0144.

Pro Advice Ready For Racquetballers

Racquetball players and racquetball equipment dealers in San Diego now can find professional answers to their questions via the "Ekteline."

Ekteline is a toll-free telephone number — (800) 854-2662 — that links the caller anywhere in the U.S. with a special representative at the headquarters of Ektelon in San Diego. The firm is said to be the leading maker of racquetball racquets, stringing machines and accessory equipment. California residents may dial 286-1188, collect, and ask for the Ekteline representative.

Ekteline offers racquetball players a fast, easy way to get professional advice on getting started in the game, choosing the right equipment and improving their skills. Since many members of Ektelon's profession racquetball team have offices at the company's headquarters, players will often find their questions being answered by men and women who know the game best.

Lines will be open 8-5 weekdays.

2X Moto Champ Due at SB Oval

Two-time national champion Kenny Roberts, one of the nation's finest motorcycle riders was among the early entries for the national-type 4th Annual Cal Rayborn Memorial motorcycle race at South Bay Park's Speedway 117 on July 24.

Roberts will be one of several national stars who will attempt to end Rick Hocking's Rayborn string of 3 straight victories. The 25-year-old Hocking, who is from Fremont, will be given a huge trophy for his accomplishments.

Meanwhile, quarter-mile motorcycle action continues at the track Saturday night, July 16, with several local riders such as Jeff Allison and Earl Holoff Jr. taking final preps before they take to the half-mile and the Rayborn show.

Gates open Saturday at 6, practice is set for 6:30 to 7:30 with the first race at 8 p.m. sharp.

Roberts, a 25-year-old vetern from Turlock, won titles in 1973 and '74 and was nosed out by Gary Scott in the final race of the 1976 campaign.

His affiliation with the Yamaha factory has guaranteed him superb road race and short track equipment and he is currrently in third place in the national standings.

Action on the half mile will involve riders from the expert, junior and novice divisions, according to promoter Don Basile, who anticipates a field of more than 100 riders.

Pizza Winners In S.V. Rec Softball Play

Final standings in the S.V. Park and Recreation District's softball league have the Pizza Hut as the winners in the Women's League with 9-1 standing.

In the Men's league, Scrubboard topped the Nationals while Rec'ers leads the American.

he Men's Post Season Tourney will be Sunday at Monte Vista High school ballgrounds.

The schedule: Scrubbord vs. Them, 9 a.m.

Sticks vs. Buddies, 10:30

Baffoon vs. Radiator, 12

Drifters vs. Rec'ers, 1:30

Women's standings:

Pizza	9-1
Beavers	8-1
People's	8-2
Sea World	7-3
Nellies	6-4
Shrimps	4-5
Freights	4-5

26 Fans Injured

Wreck Mars Cajon Races Full Card Set for Sat.

Pat McIntyre of Spring Valley and Barbara Baxter of El Cajon will head their respective divisions into the 14th week of competition at Cajon Speedway Saturday night.

McIntyre is seeking his fifth title in six years and will headline the battle for the men while Barbara Baxter will be attempting to widen her point lead in the women's division when action begins at 8 on the 3/8 mile, paved oval.

A 9 race card is scheduled with a 10-lap race for the women, and a 22-car, 40-lap main event for the men topping the night.

Other events, all for the men, include a 4-lap trophy dash, four 8-lap heat races, a 10-lap consolation race, and a 20-lap semi. Qualification runs will be kicked off at 6:30 p.m.

MyIntyre currently holds a 470 point lead over his nearest rival, Mike Hagerman, and surprisingly widened his lead overall of his chief rivals for the 1977 crown last week. McIntyre had transmission trouble and did not qualify for the 22 car finale. Running the feature in a borrowed car, McInteyre earned more points than Hagerman.

Racer Crashes

The Saturday race was stop-7 laps short of the scheduled 40 when George Esau's car went over the wall in the 4th turn and struck several people standing in the pit area.

The throttle stuck on his Camaro and it slid into the wall rear end first. The car spun headon and climbed a wall. The racer rode up over the wall and through the chain link fence surrounding the paved oval.

21 people were hurt and 3 seriously injured. One spectator, I. E. Valencia, 49, of National City, died Tuesday at Grossmont hospital.

Esau escaped injured though he was visibly shaken by the incident, the worst in the 17-year history of the track.

At the time of the accident Dineen was a single length in front of Gary Crossland in the battle for the lead. Ed Hale was awarded third place while Mark Norris of Lakeside was fourth, and fifth place went to Gary Beecroft, also of Lakeside.

Joltin' Joe Signs for Golf Classic

SCOTTSDALE — Baseball Hall of Famer Joe DiMaggio will return to the site of his only major tournament victory, and so will the American Airlines Golf Classic.

Tournament chairman Randall Malin announced that the 12th annual event, featuring baseball and football stars as partners, will be at the Registry Resort.

The 54-hole, $30,000 tournament will be conducted January 27-29, 1978, over the Palm Course of the McCormick Ranch Country Club.

DiMaggio, who has had several close finishes in the nine times he has been paired with football Hall of Famer Otto Graham, finally won it last January with the famed Cleveland Browns quarterback. But it wasn't easy.

DiMaggio and Graham beat the then Broadway Joe but now Hollywood Joe Namath and Cyde Wright, former California Angels and Tokyo Giants pitcher, in sudden-death overtime. DiMag delivered the clutch winning putt on the second extra hole.

Earlier in the tourney, Joltin' Joe was jolted when former New York Yankees teammate Yogi Berra hit DiMag on the head with an errant shot. Momentarily stunned, Joe continued play with an icebag on his head.

Berra, also a Hall of Famer, was far from contrite. "Joe wasn'te doing nothin' until I conked him," said the chuckling Yogi. "Then he woke up and started to play."

The usually taciturn DiMaggio was jubilant over his victory. "This is the first time I've ever won a big tournament," he said. "In fact, this is the first time I've won anything since the 1951 World Series."

Frisbee Tourney Is for Dogs Only

Now your dog can get in on the recreational act.

The S.V. Park & Rec. Dist. has planned the 1st annual K-9 World Frisbee Catch and Fetch championship tournament.

Dogs talented in chasing frisbees and returning them may qualify.

The new event is scheduled to start July 21 at 5 p.m. on the La Presa Junior High football field.

Owners, who wish their dogs to enter, should pick up a rules sheet at the SV Rec. office, 8661 Jamacha blvd., Spring Valley.

Deadline is July 20.

Other activities on the S.V. P&R calendar include a Muscular Dystrophy Carnival August 4, 2:30-5 p.m. at the S.V. Park, 8661 Jafacha blvd.

20 booths will be open to children at 5 cents a game. All proceeds will be donated to the M.S. Fund. SV P&R Dist. and SV McDonalds are supplying the prizes.

Basketball and badminton play is held Tuesdays and volleyball Fridays in the Mt. Miguel gym 6-10 p.m.

Action Reported At Area Lakes

The second largest bass ever caught in the west was landed in June, at Lake Miramar. The fish struck a crayfish offered from Fishing Float no. 1 in the east end of the lake.

When weighed by Lake Ranger Rick Felchlin, the scale registered 19 pounds, 2 ounces.

Recognizing the significance of the catch, concessionaire Frank De Jong tested the scale against a certified market scale and found that it weighs 2 ounces heavy, placing the 19 pound lunker in second place behind the 20 pound, 15 ounce lake and state record established in 1973 by Dave Zimmerlee.

The angler declined giving his name or details of the catch to the staff.

Recent reports that Hydrilla, a potentially bothersome aquatic plant has been identified in Lake Murray have led many people to believe that the lake is either closed or unfishable. Neither is true, the lake is open every Wednesday, Thursday, Saturday and Sunday and the Kids Pond is open daily during school vacation.

Lake Ranger Steve Fontana reported fishing conditions to be good and that trout fishing has remained surprisingly good even though it has been several weeks since the last stocking.

After a slow start, El Capitan is finally beginning to wake up. Bass and Blue Catfish are reported to be biting on live waterdogs.

An 8 pound, 1 ounce bass was caught by Bill Ramsey of Imperial Beach. There were 127 anglers on a recent Saturday, and they landed 93 Bass averaging 2 pounds each. Numerous limits in the 10 to 15-pound class were recorded.

Largest fish of the week end was an 8 pound, 11 ounce Blue Cat by Jack Martin of Oceanside. He had another that went 6 pounds, 11 ounces. Mixed stringers of Bass and Blue Catfish were common with most of the "Blues" in the 6 to 8 pound class.

For boat reservations at all lakes, call 460-2944.

Charger Camp Opens Friday

Work starts for S.D. Charger players Friday.

Rookies and selected veterans will report to the team's training headquarters at UCSD. The following Thursday rookies scrimmage versus the Dallas Cowboys at UC Irvine. July 22 the remainder of the veterans report. A Charger-Charger scrimmage is set for July 30 at the S.D. Stadium.

Business gets serious on August 6 when the team plays the Cowboys at Dallas.

Wrestlers in Title Bout Tuesday Nite

The second American heavyweight wrestling title bout in as many weeks is scheduled Tuesday at the S.D. Coliseum.

In it Texas Red again defends his title — this time against Chavo Guererro. Last week he successfully defended it against Tom Jones.

But the most exciting bout will probably be the "revenge match" between Big Bad John and Armando Guererro. Earlier this week BBJohn split Armando's scalp with a cane whip he carried into the ring. As he lay bleeding on the canvas, an unidentified fan grabbed BBJohn by the leg and attempted to pull him out. BBJohn likewise slashed "foolish fan" and the fan was taken to the hospital with head injuries. Armando appeared to be recovering well after medical treatment and is anxious to get BBJohn back in the ring, according to promoter Danny Millsap.

In other bouts starting at 7:30 p.m. KO Perez and Roddy Piper mix it in a "no disqualification" match; Victor Rivera meets Gorgeous Keith Franks, and Bill Ash and Tom Jones mix it.

Discounts are offered to military, juniors and seniors.

The assistance is restricted to those with total household income of $5000 a year or less who pay at least $50 a month rent. Assistance payments can range from $9 to $211.

Cory said the Franchise Tax Board has mailed claim forms and filing information on the two assistance programs to more than 400,000 Californians, including all who filed for property tax assistance last year and all who have inquired about the programs subsequently.

"The filing deadline is August 31, 1977, so there still is time for new applicants and other interested persons to obtain information about filing claims," Cory said.

'Greatest Show' Features Felines

America's oldest entertainment event, Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus, opened its 1977 California engagement last night at the San Diego Sports Arena.

The all-new 107th edition of The Greatest Show on Earth, playing matinee and evening performances through Sunday, featuring animal trainer Gunther Gebel-Williams with the debut of his leopard, panther and puma act.

The German-born trainer also directs a pride of 17 Royal Bengal tigers and commands an entire herd of elephants by voice alone.

Other highlights include the Carrillo Brothers from Colombia demonstrating thrilling aerial expertise by skipping rope, executing headstands, balancing in tandem on a chair and dancing on a slender steel strand 42 feet above the arena floor.

The "Flying Farfans," trapeze artists Armando Farfan and his family, perform daring feats on the bars. Thirteen-yar old Gino double somersaults while eight-year old Tata makes his first circus appearance.

This year's show premieres an "Elephant Disco" with pachyderm performers in a swinging salute to popular music.

5 new production numbers spotlight the entire cast of over 500 performers and animals including "Circus Magic," with surprises pulled out of nowhere. Gebel-Williams makes a leopard materialize from thin air.

No circus is complete without the merrymaking clowns such as Frosty Little. As "boss clown," Frosty not only performs but is responsible for the 27 other funsters in Clown Alley who carry out a total of 63 gag acts during each performance.

Local People Score In Highland Games

A Spring Valley brother and sister were runners-up in the June Scottish Highland Games at Long Beach earlier this month.

The youngsters are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Robinson of 10340 San Vincente blvd.

Philip Jr., 15, and LeAnn, 6, each won awards in Highland dancing.

They are scheduled to compete in the Highland Games in San Diego at Balboa Stadium August 7.

Other local people who will participate at the stadium are Campbell Naismoth of 6832 Central ave., Lemon Grove who will be director of Piping and Drumming. He teaches the art at his home. His wife, Margo Milligan Naismith, is a champion Highland dancer. She is also a Highland dance teacher.

He is a 1974 graduate of Mt. Miguel High school.

S.D. Wild Animal Park Tops Attendance Record

Attendance levels continue to reach all-time highs at the San Diego Wild Animal Park this year, and the Park's June attendance has set another record.

During the past month, 108,633 persons visited the wildlife preserve, topping the existing June record of 107,130 persons in 1972. Since the Park opened five years ago, attendance has reached over 100,000 in twelve separate months.

San Diego Zoo and San Diego Wild Animal Park Director Charles Bieler said, "We attribute June's high attendance directely to our evening entertainment. For a second year in a row, visitors are taking advantage of the Park's nighttime activities. We expect attendance this summer to surpass previous season's records."

The Wild Animal Park opens daily at 9 a.m. and the main ticket gate closes during the summer (through Labor Day and Fridays and Saturdays through October) at 9 p.m.

Besides nighttime excursions every evening until 10 p.m. aboard the Wgasa Bush Line monorail, visitors may enjoy the live music of the Trinidad Calypso Steel Band. The troupe plays in Nairobi Village from 4 to 10 p.m. Tuesdays through Sundays and holidays. They are joined each evening by King of the Limbo Ken Edwards whose performances are set for 7:25 and 10 p.m.

Free animal shows, with birds of prey, ponderous Asian elephants and agile horses, are set hourly through 9 p.m. Outdoor dining also is featured in Nairobi Village.

EDD Catches Double Billing Scheme by Unemployment Claimants

A scheme by at least 25,000 unemployment compensation claimants has been thwarted by the California Employment Development Department.

The EDD caught the claimants receiving the regular 65 weeks of benefits under both the 26 week provision and the two 13 week extensions reapplying for an additional 39 weeks worth of benefits.

The situation arose following a recent amendment to the federally-funded Special Unemployment Assistance program for jobless persons formerly ineligible for payments under existing programs.

These persons were found to be gathering the first 65 weeks worth of benefits, then reapplying under the Special Unemployment Assistance program for the additional money. Some claimants were found to have gathered nearly two years worth of unemployment comp.

A spokesman for the EDD said the department is now checking to make sure no previous jobless payments have been made to Special Unemployment Assistance recipitants.

Errors Will Delay Refund Checks For Senior's Tax Assistance

Many senior citizens will receive State property tax refunds late this year due to errors made in filing.

According to the Franchise Tax Board, many people are either sending in property tax bills for the wrong year or forgetting to send them in at all.

"When this happens, the department must contact the individual for a copy of the 1976-77 tax bill and the refund is delayed," said Donald Whitney, director of the Senior Citizens Property Tax Assistance Program.

Other common errors were forgetting to attach proof of age and to sign documents.

Whitney said the errors were found when the Franchise Tax Board opened the first 50,000 property tax assistance claim forms filed.

The Tax Board estimates more than 300,000 senior citizens will qualify for an average property tax refund of $236.

To be eligible for the refunds, persons must be 62 years of age on January 1, 1977, live in their own home, and have a household income of not more than $12,000.

Seniors who would like free help, contact the Franchise Tax Board's San Diego office at 236-7540.

Goddard Joins KCBQ

Steve Goddard, former number one disc jockey at radio station KMJC, has joined KCBQ, according to station manager Russ Wittberger.

During his five months at KMJC (formerly KDEO), Goddard achieved the highest ratings of any station personality and led several listening categories in the total market, Wittberger said.

Goddard, who will handle the afternoon drive segment on the "Q", from 2-6 p.m., weekdays, previously worked at WFFA in Dallas and WKY in Oklahoma City, before coming to San Diego.

A radio-television graduate of Oklahoma State U, Goddard is 25 and enjoys restoring old jukeboxes. He also has an extensive record collection, consisting of some 15,000 records of all types, with a special emphasis on the 50's era.

Mexican Festival, Rodeo at Arena

The National Mexican Festival & Rodeo comprising 60 performers and a score of purebred international show horses, including the "dancing" Lipizzans opens a two-day engagement in San Diego Sports Arena July 23 & 24.

The bi-lingual show (English & Spanish) features Tony Aguilar, his wife, Flor Silvestre; and their two sons, Tonito and Pepito, singing songs of Old Mexico and performing difficult horsemanship feats.

Tony and Flor are stars of multiple Mexican movies and among Latin America's recording artists. Joining them in performances are the charros (Mexican cowboys) in thrilling bronc and bull riding, trick riding and roping feats by the internationally Lauro Family.

Also on the bill willl be a chariot race and a death-defying Roman Riding act in which horses and riders jump through a flaming hoop.

Music will feature the famed San Miguel Mariachi band and the Folklorico regional dances in native costumes.

Tickets are on sale at the Sports Arena.

Savings 'Textbooks' Free at Home Federal

Saving money these days is not always easy, but sometimes understanding the ins and outs of savings and accounts may be just as difficult.

That's why Home Federal Savings and Loan Association of San Diego has developed a "Know Your Savings" brochure now available.

"We try to do the best job we can of explaining their new savings accounts to our customers at the new accounts desk," Marjorie Sorensen, an assistant vice president explained. "But we felt that customers wanted a written explanation of savings plan options and definitions of financial terms."

Home Federal is one of the first federally chartered S&Ls in the state to announce the publication of a comprehensive consumer's guide to savings accounts.

California's state-chartered savings and loan associations are required to make similar booklets explaining their savings policies available to their customers. Federally chartered savings and loan associations (those with "federal" in their names) are not required to comply with this state law.

The Dilly Daubers Art Guild of Spring Valley will hold an art sale at the Sears El Cajon store this weekend.

The hours for the sale will be the same for the store.

Integrated Planning Headed by Paul Zuker

County of San Diego Chief Administrative Officer David K. Speer has announced the appointment of Paul Zucker as head of the Integrated Planning Office (IPO).

Confirmation by the Board of Supervisors is expected.

Zucker is currently serving as the director of planning for the City of Tucson.

Zucker will replace Neil Dunham who headed IPO through a contractural arrangement with the State of California. Dunham is returning to Sacramento.

The person heading IPO receives an annual salary between $36,060 and $43,836.

In addition to his present post with the City of Tucson, Zucker has served as the planning director of Marin County and was the president and chief executive officer of a private non-profit corporation aiding low income and minority groups. Zucker has also lectured at the University of California at Berkeley and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

IPO is responsible for coordinating and integrating the various long range planning functions with the County regarding land-use, environmental protection, transportation, and capital facilities.

Puppets Booked At College Grove

The famous "Little People Puppets" which have been enjoyed by millions throughout the world, will give two special free shows at the Walker-Scott department store in the College Grove shopping center on Friday 13-4 p.m. and Saturday 11-3.

Both shows will be on Walker-Scott's lower level, across from the housewares department.

Puppet Productions, the nationally-known production company and manufacturer based in Sorrento Valley, will sponsor the shows.

Bill Hawes, founder and president, will also be on hand to autography copies of "The Puppet Book", his guide to puppeteering, which will be available at the Walker-Scott store, as will the hand-crafted puppets featured in the shows.

Firewood Gets Scarce

Americans are using more firewood as fireplaces become more popular. Costs are up, too. Homeowners in New York, Chicago and Los Angeles report prices of $100 per cord.

AWARD FOR PETE — Assemblyman Pete Chacon, D-Lemon Grove-Spring Valley, left, has been honored as Legislator of the Year by the San Diego Trial Lawyers Assn. He is shown here receiving his award from association president Sheridan Reed, who praised Chacon for establishing a nonpartisan advisory council in the 79th District. She also lauded his districtwide legislative workshops where public opinion on proposed legislation is sought. The ceremony was held at a recognition dinner at the Hilton Hotel.

Benny Goodman In S.D. July 20

Benny Goodman, the acknowledged King of Swing brings his celebrated sextet to town July 20 for one performance only at 8 p.m. in the S.D. Civic Theater.

With Goodman himself on clarinet, the sextet also comprises pianist John Bunch, Connie Kay on drums, bassist Knobby Totah, guitarist Cal Collins, Scott Hamilton on tenor saxophone, Warren Vache on trumpet and vocalist Susan Milikian.

Goodman, who recently turned 68, started playing the clarinet when he was about 10. By the time he was 30, he had a following of jitterbugs who jammed ballrooms in every town he played

Goodman's San Diego audiences will hear such favorites as "Up the Lazy River," "I Can't Get Started," "The One I Love Belongs to Somebody Else" and the classic "Stompin' at the Savoy."

In solo appearances, Goodman will be heard in such old standards as "Avalon," "Poor Butterfly," "Honeysuckle Rose" and "Let's Dance."

Break for Trial Jurors

Citizens summoned as prospective trial jurors for the San Diego Superior and Municipal Courts will serve less time or jury duty beginning with the new call.

According to William Pierce, assistant jury commissioner for the County of San Diego, a juror will now be required to serve on one trial or as a standby juror for five days, whichever comes first. Previously, jurors were required to serve 20 reporting days.

Pierce said the reporting procedure was changed to allow individuals to fulfill their civic obligation with a minimal amount of inconvenience.

Ask Your C.H.P.

CHP Capt. C.M. Douglas

This Week's Question:

I saw a bicyclist signalling with his right arm. Is this legal?

This Week's Answer:

Yes. According to a recent change to the Vehicle Code, a bicyclist may signal for a right turn by extending the right hand and arm horizontally to the right side of the bicycle. A bicyclist may also signal with the left hand and arm as before.

Psychic Offers Three Lectures

Dr. Kenny Kingston, phychic and clairvoyant on television, will give classes in person at The Good Life Institute of Learning at 115 Thorn st., San Diego, in the Hillcrest area of San Diego.

Three sessions are: "How to Increase Psychic Power," July 30

"Learn to Read an Aura and Change Your Life," August 6

"Knowing About Your Past Lives," August 20

All lectures begin at 8 p.m. and a $5 donation is suggested.

Deadline Set for Appealing Current Assessed Valuation

San Diego County property owners who plan to contest the values placed on their properties by the county assessor can now file an appeal, Iris Sankey, Member, State Board of Equalization, announced. The deadline is September 15.

Under an assessment hearing officer program being implemented for 1977-78, taxpayers whose property value is $100,000 or less may request an informal hearing before a hearing officer. Hearings will be conducted by hearing officers as necessary in certain designated outlying areas of the County as well as at the County Administration Center.

Total applications heard in 1976-77 were 1,917, involving 2,994 parcels. Of the 2,994 parcels, reductions were made in 52.1 percent, some 42.6 percent were denied and 0.3 percent were increased, and no change was requested in five percent of the appeals.

If a property owner does not receive notice of the assessed value of his property by July 1, or shortly thereafter, he may obtain the information by visiting the assessor's or county auditor's office, where the roll is kept.

Usually the assessor's office will supply the figures by telephone or mail if the owner can identify the property accurately, preferably by parcel number.

Sankey said that a property owner can contest the assessor's full value estimate if he thinks it is excessive. Except in the case of land in the "open-space" program, "full value" means the best price a willing and knowledgeable seller could obtain for the property from a willing and knowledgeable buyer.

To contest the assessor's full value, the property owner should be prepared with information on the sales price of comparable properties in the neighborhood.

Sankey emphasized that an appellant cannot expect relief merely because taxes generally are high or because the current assessed value is considerably higher than last year's. The current assessed value must be excessive relative to what the property was worth on March 1, 1977.

The property owner may first wish to contact the assessor's office and request an explanation of the appraised value of the property. If the explanation does not resolve the issue, the taxpayer then should appeal to the assessment appeals board if the county has one, or to the board of supervisors sitting as a county board of equalization. The hearing before such a board is informal, and the taxpayer need not have legal counsel.

Forms on which to file appeals may be obtained from the clerk of the county board of supervisors or from the assessor's office.

Application forms may be obtained by calling 236-2333, or taxpayers may submit a requist in writing or pick up forms beginning July 5, in Room 306, County Administration Center, 1600 Pacific Highway in San Diego.

Information concerning the hearing officer program, how to request forms, or how to file an application may be obtained by calling the Clerk's office at 236-2333, weekdays.

Smokers to Pay Now For Own Life Later

State Senator Bob Wilson said that his legislation to increase the California Cigarette Tax by 3 cents a pack for funds to be used for lung and heart disease research projects, has been passed by the Senate. The bill now goes to the Assembly for further action.

Wilson's bill would generate an extra $90 million for research purposes.

Wilson said, "Heart disease is the number on killer in the U.S. and lung cancer is striking an increasing number of people despite the publicized danger of smoking. Research is the only answer to saving these lives. My bill will provide the necessary funds to enable in-depth research into the causes and cures of these diseases.

"I think it is fitting that an extra tax on cigarettes now, which would cost the average smoker less than one dollar a month, might save the life of that smoker later."

Cheaper by the Half Dozen

A six month extension of the 10 cent carpool rate has been granted for commuters using the San Diego-Coronado Bay Bridge. The measure was approved by the California Toll Bridge Authority at their June meeting.

Senior Citizens Ask

Answers On Property Tax And Rent Assistance

This is the fourth and final column developed by the Franchise Tax Board to help you determine if you qualify for either Senior Citizens Property Tax Assistance or the recently enacted Senior Citizens Rent Assistance Law.

This column covers a variety of situations which occur when completing claim forms.

Common Situations

Q: I recently underwent surgery and will be hospitalized for the next few months. How do I ask for an extension to file a claim for Senior Citizens Rent Assistance?

A: Extensions of time for filing are granted for up to six months after the end of the normal period for filing assistance claims. You may obtain an extension by writing to Senior Citizens Programs, Post Office Box 1588, Sacramento, CA 95807 stating the reason the extension is needed.

Q: I claimed the $37 renter's credit last year by filing a Personal Income Tax Form 540. Is it okay for me to file for Senior Citizens Rent Assistance?

A: Yes. If you are eligible you may file under both programs.

Q: My husband and I own a small grocery store located on the same property as our home. Do we compute our Senior Citizens Property Tax refund based on the total tax bill?

A: Senior Citizens Property Tax Assistance is allowed only for tax assessed on the home portion of property.

You should prorate the tax based on what percentage of the entire property is used as a personal residence.

Q: I filed my claim for rent assistance the first part of June. When can I expect my refund?

A: Refunds will be issued after June 30, 1977 and before October 31, 1977. You should allow four to five weeks from the date you filed to receive a refund check.

J: My husband and I have rented a space in a mobile park for the last three years, however, we own our mobile home. We are both 65 years old and together made $3,985. Can we file for rent assistance?

A: Yes. Renting a space in a mobile home park is considered the same as renting an apartment or house, and if the space costs $50 or more per month, you would be eligible for rent assistance.

Q: I'm 63 years old and my income last year amounted to $4,700. I owned my home until April, 1977. In April I moved into an apartment. Can I file claims for both Senior Citizens Property Tax Assistance and Senior Citizens Rent Assistance?

A: If you qualified part of the year for Senior Citizens Property Tax Assistance and part of the year for Senior Citizens Renter's Assistance, you may elect to receive one or the other but not both.

Local Gas Tax Up to Community

Voters in seven of the state's most populous counties would be authorized to impose a local gasoline tax under legislation authored by Senate President Pro Tem James R. Mills, (D-San Diego) which has been approved by the Senate, 23-2.

SB 213 would permit the maximum one-cent-a-gallon voter-approved tax in Alameda, San Francisco, San Mateo, Santa Clara and Sacramento Counties. In Los Angeles County the boundaries of the Southern California Rapid Transit District would be used for voting purposes and in San Diego the voting boundaries would be those of the Metropolitan Transit Development Board.

The measure also authorizes voters in cities with populations exceeding 500,000 to impose the tax.

The counties include those already authorized by Proposition 5 (approved in 1974) to divert some of their gasoline tax revenue for mass transit purposes. Included are Lemon Grove and Spring Valley.

Money generated under SB 213 would be used to build and maintain mass transit guideways and exclusive bus lanes on freeways, buy equipment for those systems and pay off bonds approved by voters for those purposes.

Mills noted that his legislation would give local government greater flexibility in dealing with its transportation problems.

Arts Service Program Open to Job Seekers

The Intercultural Council of the Arts is accepting applications for positions in San Diego's new comprehensive community arts service program.

The program is funded by grants from federal government through the Regional Employment and Training Consortium and will offer technical assistance to arts organizations, artists, and social service organizations throughout the county.

Applicants must meet new Title VI income criteria and may apply with June Gutfleisch at 295-0453.

Beer Taxes

Beer drinkers make better taxpayers. That's the word from the U. S. Brewers Assn. According to the Association, California beer drinkers paid a record $156.4 million in federal, state, and local taxes during the first 6 months of this year.

Green Lights for On-Ramps

Rt. 94 To Get Traffic Flow Metering System

Every westbound freeway on ramp between Grossmont and downtown San Diego will have new metering signal lights by next January, California Department of Transportation officials have announced.

According to Caltrans's District 11 Assistant Traffic Engineer Dick Weaver, construction will start at 20 different locations sometime this month.

Scheduled to have the new lights in the Lemon Grove area are the Route 94 on-ramps at Broadway, Lemon Grove ave., Massachusetts ave., and at Federal blvd.

The improvements to Route 94 will cost some $507,000.

The lights are controlled by a system of mini-computers. The computers monitor freeway traffic and coordinate it with the traffic on the ramps.

A series of detector loops are installed in the freeway pavement and in the pavement of the on-ramp. When freeway traffic is light, the signal registers green.

When freeway traffic gets heavier, cars on Route 94 trigger the detector loops. The signal light then records openings in the traffic and relays this information via the light to waiting cars on the on-ramp.

A green, amber, and red light will show when there are breaks in the traffic. Intervals could be between six to 15 seconds. Each cycle will allow one or two cars to enter the freeway.

Assistant engineer Don Day of the District 11 Caltrans office in San Diego said the lights would be placed about 150 feet back from the freeway to allow cars to pick up speed and blend safely in with the traffic.

School districts are allowed by law to dispose of these books free of charge to residents of the school district.

Fair Breaks Records

The gates have barely been closed and the trash cleaned up on the 88th Annual Southern California Exposition before the fair's directors have decided to run next year's 89th Annual fair June 21 through July 4.

This year's fair attracted 648,929 visitors, a new record. Opening day attendance records were also broken this year, even though one day records remained in tact. Largest attendance on a single day was on June 25 when some 67,291 people turned the styles.
